FROM THE VICAR.

My dear People,

Last month the Church in our parish suffered a great loss by the death of Walter James Cherry at the comparatively early age of 62. He had been a regular communicant, a choirman and bell-ringer of long standing, and for the last few years had acted as clerk. He was a member of the Parochial Church Council until a couple of years or so ago and for a time he acted as its secretary. Until his last illness he had read one of the lessons at evening service in the strong voice we knew so well singing bass in the choir. For several winters he had looked after the church fires until his strength no longer permitted him to do so. He was indeed a loyal churchman, always present at service Sunday by Sunday unless hindered by some very good reason, and in this respect was an example to us all. During his last long illness, with its treatment at various hospitals, he bore much inconvenience and pain with great fortitude and bravery and even when very weak would always raise a smile to welcome his visitors. I saw him just a few hours before his death which took place very peacefully.

A Requiem for the repose of his soul was said in church on 17th September, the burial taking place later the same day. We express our deep sympathy to his wife and family. May his soul rest in peace.

Yours very sincerely,

W. E. Douthwaite.
